

Reflection was composed during the months after my father passed away, inspired by his warm, generous spirit, and the sorts of romantic harmonies he so loved. It's dedicated to dear friend and wonderful pianist Barbara Peterson Cackler, who was kind enough to give the first performance.

Level: advanced intermediate; requires facility in managing melody and accompaniment in one hand; legato playing throughout. Having a sentimental nature helps!

Duration: ca. 4:30