

Variations on a Czech Folk Song

Já Mám Koně...I Have Horses...

This is one of the songs my Czech mother used to sing to me when I was small, bouncing me playfully on her knees. Budding horse lover that I was, I adored the bumpy ride, as well as the thrill of not knowing when, exactly, I would end up on the floor! Most of all, I loved the simple, touching melody. These variations were a labor of love, therefore.
